

Shorne Church of England Primary School

(A member of the Aletheia Anglican Academies Trust)

Anti-bullying Policy

Lead Member of Staff:	Tara Hewett
Lead Governor:	Angela Purdy
Date approved:	May 2020
Next scheduled review:	May 2021

As a Church of England school this policy should be read within the context of the Christian values and teachings of our school

This policy outlines what Shorne Church of England Primary School will do to prevent and tackle all forms of bullying. The policy has been drawn up through the involvement of the whole school community and we are committed to developing an anti-bullying culture where no bullying of adults, children or young people will be tolerated.

1. Our school community:

- discusses monitors and reviews our anti-bullying policy and practice on a regular basis
- supports all members of staff to promote positive relationships to prevent bullying
- will intervene by identifying and tackling bullying behaviour appropriately and promptly
- ensures that pupils are aware that all bullying concerns will be dealt with sensitively and effectively; that pupil feel safe to learn; and that pupils abide by the anti-bullying policy
- requires all members of the community to work with the school to uphold the anti-bullying policy
- reports back to parents/carers regarding concerns on bullying and deals promptly with complaints
- seeks to learn from good anti-bullying practice elsewhere
- utilises support from the Aletheia Anglican Academies Trust and other relevant organisations when appropriate

2. Definition of bullying

- Bullying is “Behaviour by an individual or a group, usually repeated over time that intentionally hurts another individual either physically or emotionally”. (DfE “Preventing and Tackling Bullying”, November 2014)
- Bullying can include: name calling, taunting, mocking, making offensive comments; kicking; hitting; taking belongings; producing offensive graffiti; gossiping; excluding people from groups and spreading hurtful and untruthful rumours.
- this includes the same inappropriate and harmful behaviours expressed via digital devices (cyberbullying) such as the sending of inappropriate messages by phone, text, Instant Messenger, through websites, social media sites and apps, and sending offensive or degrading imagery by mobile phone or via the internet.

3. Forms of bullying covered by this Policy

Bullying can happen to anyone. This policy covers all types of bullying including:

- bullying related to race, religion or culture
- bullying related to SEND (Special Educational Needs or Disability)
- bullying related to appearance or physical/mental health conditions
- bullying related to sexual orientation (homophobic bullying)
- bullying of young carers, children in care or otherwise related to home circumstances

- sexist, sexual and transphobic bullying
- bullying via technology, known as online or cyberbullying

4. Preventing, identifying and responding to bullying

The school community will:

- create and support an inclusive environment which promotes a culture of mutual respect, consideration and care for others which will be upheld by all
- work with staff and outside agencies to identify all forms of prejudice-driven bullying
- actively provide systematic opportunities to develop pupils' social and emotional skills, including their resilience
- recognise that bullying can be perpetrated or experienced by any member of the community, including adults and children (peer on peer abuse)
- provide a range of approaches for pupils, staff and parents/carers to access support and report concerns
- challenge practice which does not uphold the values of tolerance, non-discrimination and respect towards others
- consider all opportunities for addressing bullying in all forms throughout the curriculum and supported with a range of approaches such as through displays, assemblies, peer support and the school/student council
- regularly update and evaluate our approaches to take into account the developments of technology and provide up-to-date advice and education to all members of the community regarding positive online behaviour
- train all staff including teaching staff, support staff (including administration staff, lunchtime support staff and site support staff) and pastoral staff to identify all forms of bullying, follow the school policy and procedures (including recording and reporting incidents)
- proactively gather and record concerns and intelligence about bullying incidents and issues so as to effectively develop strategies to prevent bullying from occurring
- take appropriate, proportionate and reasonable action, in line with existing school policies, for any bullying brought to the schools attention which involves or effects pupils even when they are not on school premises, for example when using school transport or online etc.
- actively create "safe spaces" for vulnerable children and young people
- use a variety of techniques to resolve the issues between those who bully and those who have been bullied - Restorative Justice
- celebrate success and achievements to promote and build a positive school ethos
- educate children in the use of technology, especially mobile phones and social media positively and responsibly

5. Involvement of pupils

We will:

- regularly canvas children and young people's views on the extent and nature of bullying
- ensure that all pupils know how to express worries and anxieties about bullying

- ensure that all pupils are aware of the range of sanctions which may be applied against those engaging in bullying
- involve pupils in anti-bullying campaigns in schools and embedded messages in the wider school curriculum
- publicise the details of helplines and websites
- offer support to pupils who have been bullied and to those who are bullying in order to address the problems they have

6. Liaison with parents and carers

We will:

- make sure that key information (including policies and named points of contact) about bullying is available to parents/carers in a variety of formats
- ensure that all parents/carers know who to contact if they are worried about bullying
- ensure all parents/carers know about our complaints procedure and how to use it effectively to raise concerns in an appropriate manner
- ensure all parents/carers know where to access independent advice about bullying
- work with all parents/carers and the local community to address issues beyond the school gates that give rise to bullying in school
- ensure that parents work with the school to role model positive behaviour for pupils, both on and offline

Appendix 2:

Dealing with Bullying Incidents

The following steps may be taken when dealing with all incidents of bullying reported to the school:

- If bullying is suspected or reported, the incident will be dealt with immediately by the member of staff who has been approached.
- A clear and precise account of the incident will be recorded and given to the Head of school and/or designated Safeguarding Lead.
- The Head of school / designated safeguarding lead will interview all parties involved and will record the incident in accordance with school procedures.
- Teachers and other relevant members of staff will be kept informed as appropriate.
- When responding to cyberbullying concerns the school will take all available steps to identify the bully, including looking at the school systems, identifying and interviewing possible witnesses, and contacting the service provider and the police, if necessary.
- If content posted online is offensive or inappropriate, and the person or people responsible are known, then the school will ensure that they understand why the material is unacceptable or offensive and will be instructed to remove it.
- If a criminal offence has been committed then the police will be involved to enable the service provider to look into the data of another user or to respond to credible threats of harm.

Where the bullying takes place outside of the school site (including cyberbullying) then the school will ensure that the concern is investigated and that appropriate action is taken in accordance with the schools behaviour and discipline policy.

- Parents/carers of all children involved will be kept informed.
- Sanctions will be used as appropriate and in consultation with all parties concerned.
- If necessary and appropriate, the police (if a criminal offence has been committed) or other local services (including children's social care where a child is felt to be at risk of significant harm) will be consulted or involved.

Supporting Pupils

Pupils who have been bullied will be supported by:

- Having an immediate opportunity to discuss the experience with their teacher or a member of staff of their choice.
- Being advised to keep a record of the bullying as evidence and discuss how respond to concerns and build resilience as appropriate.
- Reassuring the pupil and providing continuous support.
- Having support to restore self-esteem and confidence.
- School will work with the wider community and local/national organisations to provide further or specialist advice and guidance.

Pupils who have bullied will be helped by:

- Discussing what happened and establishing the concern and the need to change.
- Informing parents/carers to help change the attitude and behaviour of the child.
- Providing appropriate education and support.

- If online, requesting that content be removed and reporting accounts/content to service provider.
- Sanctioning in line with school behaviour/discipline policy. This may include official warnings, detentions, removal of privileges (including online access when encountering cyberbullying concerns), fixed-term and/or permanent exclusions.
- Speaking with police or local services.

Supporting Adults who have been bullied

Adults (staff and parents) who have been bullied or affected will be supported by:

- Having an immediate opportunity to discuss the concern with the designated Safeguarding Lead and/or a senior member of staff/Head of School.
- Being advised to keep a record of the bullying as evidence and discuss how respond to concerns and build resilience as appropriate.
- Where the bullying takes place outside of the school site (including online) then the school will ensure that the concern is investigated and that appropriate action is taken in accordance with the schools behaviour and discipline policy.
- If the bullying takes place online, supported those affected by reporting content and/or accounts to the service provider as appropriate.
- Reassuring and offering appropriate support.
- Working with the wider community and local/national organisations to provide further or specialist advice and guidance.

Supporting Adults who have bullied

Adults (staff and parents) who have bullied will be helped by:

- Discussing what happened with a senior member of staff and establishing the concern.
- Clarifying the schools official procedures for complaints or concerns.
- If online, requesting that content be removed.
- Instigating disciplinary, civil or legal action.

Note:

Additional support is available for school leaders dealing with complaints or bullying on social networking sites by parents/carers:

www.kelsi.org.uk/ data/assets/word doc/0016/60820/Dealingwith-complaints-against-schools-by-parents-or-carers-on-social-networking-sites.docx

It is recommended that schools read this guidance and share content as appropriate with staff and parents/carers:
